We're Home

On December 21st, we left Marianna, Florida and headed to Arkansas in a family caravan consisting of our family, Alecia's parents, and Alecia's sister's family pulling our Uhaul trailer. After spending the first night in Mississippi, we pulled up to the house, unloaded the trailer of essentials, and headed on to Oklahoma to spend Christmas with Alecia's grandparents. We returned to Little Rock on the 29th to prepare for the movers, who brought our "non-essentials" the following day. We were blessed to have four different FamilyLife families show up to help us get settled. On our big moving day, they left us with all the beds made, the kitchen unpacked, washer and dryer hooked up, and a homemade dinner. God is so good!

Happy Birthday Gabriel!

Our precious boy! He turned seven on January 28th. Here are a few of his thoughts:

Mommy: How do you like living in Arkansas?

Gabriel: I love Arkansas because it is my new home and I get to sleep upstairs.

Mommy: What do you like about being a missionary family?

Gabriel: We get to travel alot and work for Jesus!

Every night Gabriel prays for you and thanks God that you are on our team of ministry partners. Gabriel is a very sweet and smart boy. He loves music and being creative. He also does a good job looking out for his little sister, Naomi.

White Christmas

We were blessed to be with Alecia's grandparents' for Christmas. Little did we know, a small blizzard was in store for us! It was so fun to watch the snow blowing outside on Christmas Eve. Our family had its first White Christmas!

But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent?
