Conference News

The Weekend to Remember conference season is once again in full swing. Already, God is using the conference to bring hope and restoration to marriages and families. Here are a some things Dennis Rainey shared about the conference in Washington, D.C.:

"Despite record breaking snow of over 60" in the past week, the Gaylord WTR turned out tons of people and very few no-shows...over 2400 I'm told. Some highlights of the conference for Barbara and me were:

- 314 indicated they received Christ at the conference.
- Another 700 dedicated their families to Christ.
- One man told me his wife gave him her wedding ring this past Christmas, asking him for a divorce. She asked for it back as the conference concluded."

Please join us in praying for the families touched by this month's marriage conferences.

We cannot express enough how much we appreciate the love that you show us through your prayer and giving. We mean it! If there is anything we can do for you or someone you know, we would be honored to help. Whether through a conference, resources, or prayer it is our privilege to serve you.

[Love] bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.
