Keeping you connected as we serve with FamilyLife

JULY 2010

Reporting for Duty!

With great excitement and heartfelt gratitude, we are delighted to share that we reported to our assignment at FamilyLife headquarters on June 21st. Needless to say, we have been very busy making the transition into this new stage of our ministry. The kids spent a few weeks in Florida, and Alecia joined them after our initial orientation at FamilyLife. God's timing is perfect. We have been placed on the internet team, to help FamilyLife reach people in this information era. After cutting his teeth on a couple of small projects for the internet group, Michael is now working on the web site for FamilyLife's new The Art of Marriage video event (set to premiere February 11, 2011). We are excited about what God will do in the near future!

At the same time, we must also ask your forgiveness for not sending our new photo prayer card last month. We are working on it, however, and plan to send it out soon.

But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

PRESENTS the art of  marriage[™]

2.11.11

FamilyLife is changing the way we get help and hope to couples and families in need. One way this will happen is through the new video event, The Art of Marriage. The Art of Marriage is a series of video sessions that weave together expert teaching, engaging stories, real-life testimonies, and humorous vignettes to help couples fully experience God's design for marriage. Our goal is to have 1000 churches or community groups host the event when it premieres on February 11, 2011. We're still working on the workbooks, but the videos have all been completed. You can get a look at what we've done for the web site so far by going to:

<http://store.familylife.com/MomLifeToday/AOM/index.html>

We'll keep you updated as that address changes and more info becomes available.

We plan to continue highlighting some of FamilyLife's other resources this summer, including: LifeReady[™]: Explore, and Right from the Start.

Please Pray...

- FamilyLife - God's clear direction for the many projects under development this summer.
- Corbin Family - for health, protection, and God's continued favor as we work to serve Him and His people.

We are praying for you daily! Call or email if you have a specific prayer need.
