One to One

Michael has had the privilege of working on the Mentor Guide, an internet-based resource for FamilyLife's eMentors and for other ministries to use as they train and support mentors. It offers topic-focused tools for mentoring, including specific Scripture help. If you're like us, you love to hear testimonies like this note from a mentee to one of our eMentors:

FAMILYLIFE
eMentoring™

FamilyLife's eMentoring is part of our recent efforts to put the resources God has given us into the hands of the local church, especially lay people. eMentors are volunteers who receive training and tools from FamilyLife, and invest a couple of hours per week to online mentoring. FamilyLife has trained over 200 mentors, and they are having a profound impact on those seeking discipleship and encouragement.

Why eMentoring?

It's all about discipleship. Global Media Outreach, another ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ, says that more than 2 million people search the internet for spiritual answers each day. By creating numerous websites that share God's plan of salvation (and rank well on search engines), GMO has been leading the way in online ministry and is seeing millions of people each year indicate decisions for Christ. You can see their work in action at www.greatcommission2020.com (live daily tracking of visits, decisions, more). Here are just a few of their websites: godlife.com soulsurfer.com jesucristo2020.com buscaajesus.com 4laws.com lifegreatestquestion.com huijiadelu.com whoisjesusreally.com jesus2020.com

I have been doing a lot of thinking since your last email. I have been thinking about the question you asked, "Is what Jesus did for me enough?" After reading the scriptures you sent I decided to talk to my wife about how I felt, it was the first time we talked about my shame. My wife asked me the same question: "Is what Jesus did enough?"

She also said she is beginning to trust me. I have decided that what Jesus did for me is more than enough. I feel like a new creation-forgiven and free.

...

*Well I better go for now
Thank you*

Running the Race

Summer is over, and school has started. Here is a quick look at the Corbin family:

Michael completed all three of his core Institute of Biblical Studies (IBS) classes. He did well with Doctrine Survey, Bible Study Methods, and New Testament Survey while still taking care of his regular roles with ministry and family. He has also worked on the online Mentor Guide and has started work on an upcoming refresh of the main FamilyLife website.

Alecia has been investing her time revamping FamilyLife's childcare ministry for missionary staff, preparing and starting the new homeschool year, and taking care of all of the children's appointments. She also had the privilege to share our testimony with 150 ladies at our church's annual women's event.

Gabriel had oral surgery, which went beautifully. His recovery has been great. He is excited to say he is now in third grade, but doing fourth grade math. Gabriel has also started his Bear Cub year in Cub Scouts, as well as JBQ (Junior Bible Quiz) at church.

Naomi has begun first grade and will be six next month! She wanted to try dance lessons this year, and we were blessed to find a local studio that offers classical ballet and tap. She is very cute as she learns to be better coordinated. Naomi has also started JBQ.

The twins just turned one! They are doing well in the several therapy sessions they have each week, but are still behind developmentally. In the most recent court hearing, the judge accepted the state's recommendation to terminate parental rights for their mother. The termination hearing is December 6th. We continue to pray for God's perfect will in their lives.
